RACE MAP GUIDE

1

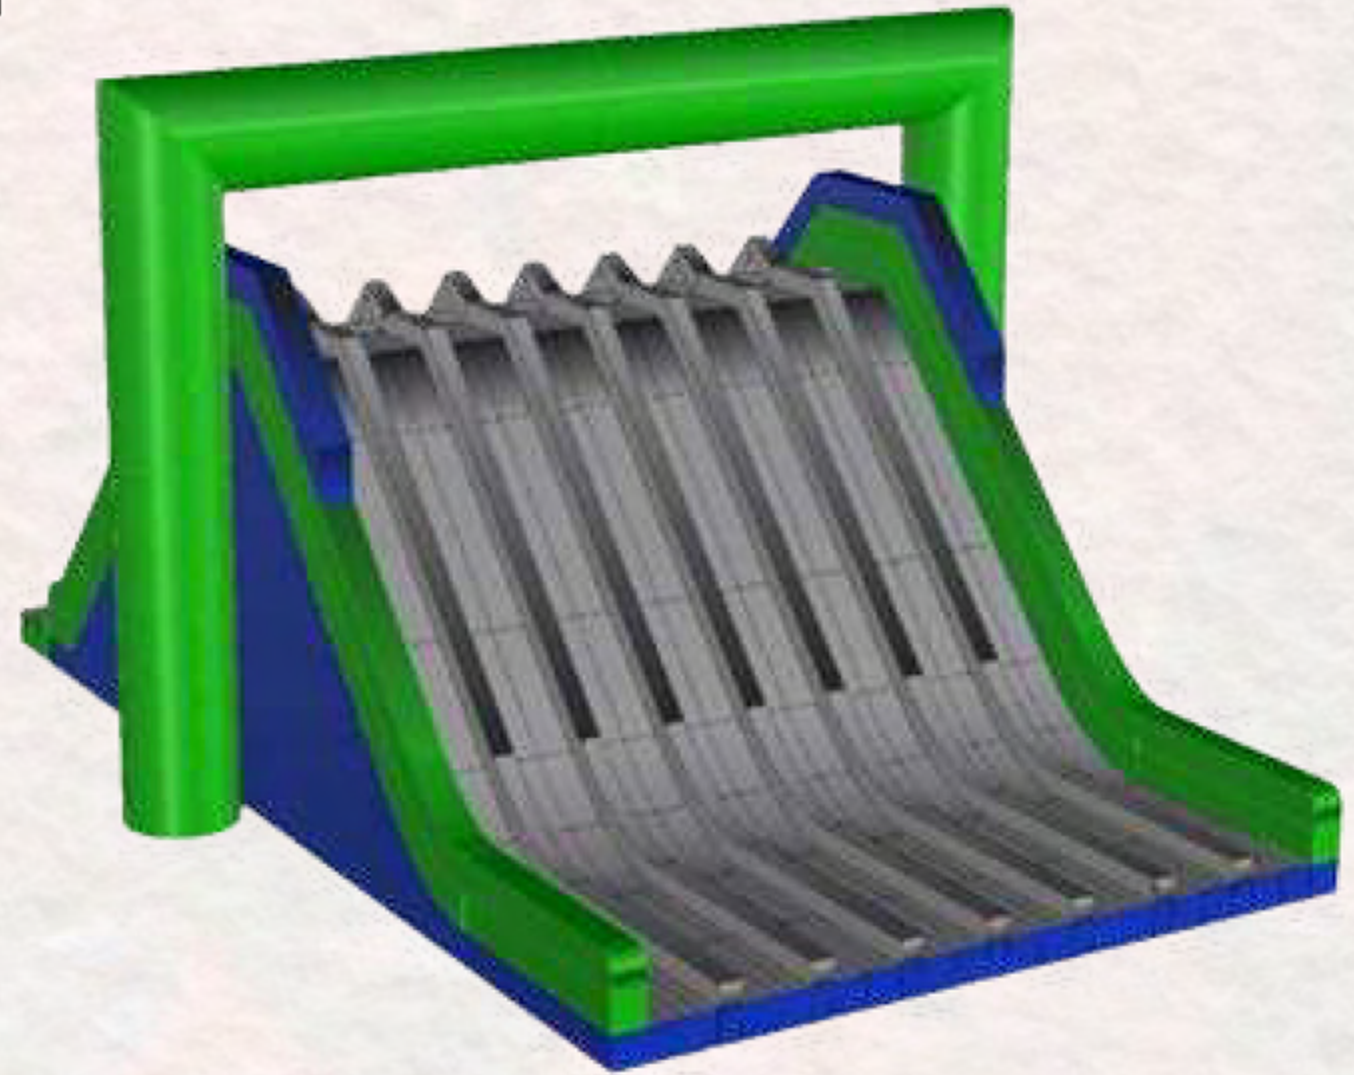

KICK-OFF STATION

- Description: The race kicks off with a steep climb up an inflatable "mountain." This challenging start will test your endurance right from the beginning. Participants must scramble up the inflatable surface, using their hands and feet to gain traction before they can take off down the rest of the course.

- Skills Tested: Strength, coordination, and stamina.

SIZE: 19M X 15M X 10MH

2

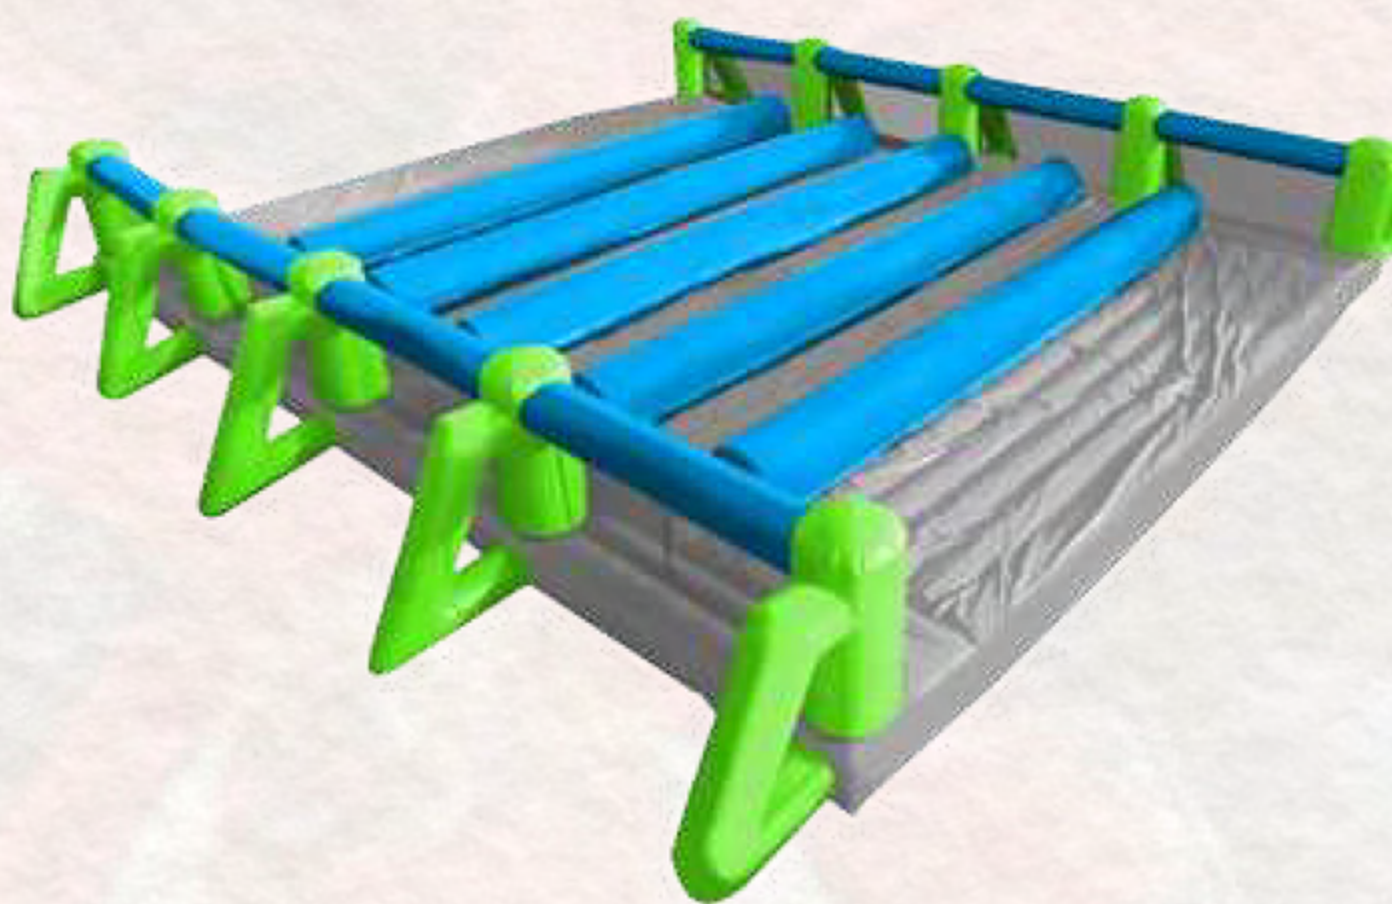

ROLL & BOUNCE

- Description: Aim for huge air with each leap, Start on the inflatable platform and get a big bounce. Aim to land on the first bouncy barrel and use it to leap across the 4-foot gap. For those feeling adventurous, keep your feet planted firmly on each barrel to maximize the bounce height. Or, if bouncing is too much, roll over the inflatable hurdles instead—it's a bit safer but still fun!

- Skills Tested: Flexibility, timing, balance and agility.

3

NINJA WARRIOR

- Description: This inflatable structure features interconnected paths, elevated walkways, and bouncy bridges, all set to challenge and entertain. Participants navigate through twists, turns, and gentle slopes, experiencing the feel of an outdoor trail in a safe, soft environment.
- Skills Tested: Balance, coordination, ability and endurance.

4

BLOW-UP WALL

- Description: Participants must rely on upper body strength and coordination to ascend the wall, balancing stability and control. Reaching the top demands mental focus and a fearless attitude, while sliding down and moving to the next obstacle challenges participants to maintain momentum and quickly adapt. This wall is a true assessment of resilience, where every slip is a chance to bounce back and push forward, testing racers grit and adaptability.
- Skills Tested: Strength, balance and coordination.

5

THE SKULKER

- Description: This station sounds like a blast! It's more than just an inflatable tunnel; it's a full-body experience where participants have to dive, crawl, and move creatively to make it through. The structure likely features twists, turns, and maybe some surprising obstacles or narrow passages that challenge agility and balance.
- Skills Tested: Flexibility, timing, and agility.

6

MASSIVE HILL

- Description: This station is a physical challenge where participants must leap or run across a series of large inflatable balls, simulating the movements of a frog, and reach the other side without falling off. The super-soft patented landing mattress ensures safety, making it perfect for adventurers who are ready to test their agility without worrying about getting hurt if they fall.
- Skills Tested: Balance, agility, focus, strength and bravery.

7

TREK CROSSWAY

- Description: it's not only fun but also a great workout, combining physical challenges like climbing, sliding, and navigating through colorful towers and blocks. The emphasis on racing through the course multiple times hints at its appeal for competitive fun and fitness. Given the variety of obstacles and the energy required, participants would need strength, agility, and stamina to complete it, making it a skillful activity.
- Skills Tested: Agility, balance, coordination, strength, and endurance

SIZE: 13M X 16M X 5MH

8

RISE-UP

- Description: The Inflatable Rise-Up sounds like an absolute thrill!
